Open Algorithm Standard

The Open Algorithm Standard (hereinafter referred to as "the Standard") described in this legal notice is provided on an "as-is" basis. By using the Standard, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions stated in these terms. By adopting and utilizing the Standard, you agree to the terms and conditions outlined below:

Support by the API providers is not guaranteed: To the extent that Standard submissions require separate implementation by the API providers, developers should approach the API providers separately. Support by any API providers, including but not limited to the Lens API, is not guaranteed.

No Warranty: The Standard is provided without any warranties or representations, expressed or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement. You acknowledge that the use of the Standard is at your own risk.

Limitation of Liability: In no event shall the Lens Team or its affiliates be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, exemplary, or consequential damages (including, but not limited to, procurement of substitute goods or services, loss of use, data, or profits, or business interruption) arising in any way out of the use, inability to use, or reliance on the Standard, even if advised of the possibility of such damage.

Indemnification: You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Lens Team, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, employees, and agents from any claims, demands, damages, liabilities, expenses, or losses arising out of or in connection with your use of the Standard.

Modification and Termination: the Lens Team reserves the right to modify, suspend, or terminate the Standard at any time, with or without notice. Such modifications, suspensions, or terminations may include changes to the Standard's specifications, procedures, or any other aspect deemed necessary by the Lens Team.

Intellectual Property: The Standard and any associated intellectual property rights belong to their respective owners. Nothing in these terms grants you any rights or licenses to use the Standard's intellectual property rights unless expressly stated otherwise.

Applicable Law: These terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Cayman Islands. All disputes arising out of or in connection with the present contract shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one arbitrator appointed in accordance with the said Rules. The place of arbitration shall be the Cayman Islands.

If you do not agree with these terms and conditions, or if you are uncertain about any aspect of the Standard, we recommend seeking legal advice before adopting or utilizing the Standard.
